Supplies

None

Setup

Have everyone for a circle and link arms with one other person

The Game

This is tag where two people play tag in the middle of the circle. Once the chaser tags the chasee, they reverse roles. However, if the chasee links with one of the pairs on the outside of the circle, they have kicked out the other person who was part of the pair. That person now becomes the chasee. A couple of rules to help, you can't just slide from one pair to the next pair, i.e. you need to go into the circle. If it is not clear that a tag occurred, the emcee of the game makes a quick ruling about who is it.
